WFH Approval Process & FAQs

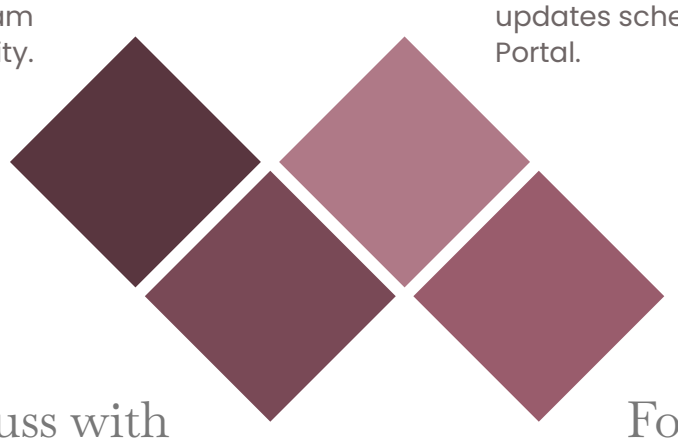

APPROVAL PROCESS

Manager Review

Manager assesses project needs and team availability.

HRMS Update

If approved, manager updates schedule in HRMS Portal.

Discuss with Manager

Employee proposes WFH schedule to reporting manager.

Follow Hybrid Schedule

Employee adheres to the approved hybrid work plan.

TEMPORARY FULL-TIME WFH

May be approved under exceptional circumstances such as medical conditions, natural disasters, severe weather, government advisories, office emergencies, or business continuity requirements. Approval from both Reporting Manager and HR is required.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How many WFH days per week?

Generally 2 days per week as part of the Hybrid Work Model, subject to manager approval.

Can I choose my WFH days?

Coordinate your remote schedule with your reporting manager and team to ensure business continuity.

Can interns work from home?

Only if approved by their manager and HR based on project requirements.

Can I work from another city?

Prior approval from both manager and HR is required before working from a different city or state for an extended period.

What if my internet fails?

Immediately inform your reporting manager and coordinate alternative arrangements or office attendance.

Can WFH privileges be revoked?

Yes. Failure to meet performance expectations, repeated policy violations, or business requirements may result in modification or withdrawal of hybrid work privileges.
